Call to Confession

Prayer of Confession

Silent Prayers

One: Lord,

All: We long to be seen as persons of substance. We yearn for attention, any attention: the world's, our neighbor's, yours. We forget the coinage of your realm. Forgive us when we seek self-interest over the ways of your realm, and redirect our attention. Amen.

Prayer of Illumination (sung)

listen to the voice that began creation;
listen even if you don't understand.

Responding to the Word

Hymn 367 Jesu, Jesu, Fill Us With Your Love

Affirmation of Faith – adopted from the Confession of Belhar

We believe that Christ's work of reconciliation is made manifest in the church as the community of believers who have been reconciled with God and with one another.

We believe that unity is, therefore,
both a gift and an obligation
for the church of Jesus Christ.

We believe that,

through the working of God's Spirit,
it is a binding force,
yet simultaneously a reality
which must be earnestly pursued and sought:
one which the people of God must continually be built up to attain.

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

...Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

AT THE FIRST MEETING OF THE CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS COMMITTEE, it was decided that input from the congregation regarding the use, size and design of our physical assets was extremely important. With that in mind, please share your thoughts and ideas by contacting Dick Kelly, chairman of the committee, at richardc.kelly@comcast.net or by calling 303-460-7621.

OUTREACH COMMITTEE REPORT February 23rd was our second meeting. The members are Mary Ann Hood, Barb Mitchell, Bill and Linda Keck, and Jan Myers. Although the recommendation is to begin with just two programs we still have four on our list:

- Vantage Point and Crossroads Schools. How can we be a good neighbor?
- Reading Program for young children. To be held at Good Shepherd without the parents present. Linda will meet with the Christian Ed Committee on Sunday 02/28 and check liability.
- Victims Services. Linda Keck will gather information from Adams County.
- An art workshop for teens at Vantage Point and Crossroads. This would be held in our Fellowship Hall with Jan Myers.

We will keep the congregation informed (Minutes on the website and bulletin board) and welcome any and all input you may have. Please Email Jan Myers, secretary, jan.myers@earthlink.net.

NEWS FROM THE FINANCE WORKGROUP The per capita assessment for Good Shepherd, which is paid to the Presbytery of Denver, is $4,205 for 2016. The church is assessed $29 for each member. It is greatly appreciated when our members can help by paying this assessment. Per capita is one of the expenses in our annual budget....Expenses for 2016 so far are well under the income received. Thank you for your continued support of Good Shepherd.

THERE'S A NEW SIGN-UP LIST FOR FELLOWSHIP TIME (COFFEE AND SNACKS) AFTER CHURCH. We all love our Fellowship time after church, so PLEASE sign up for your Sunday! The sign-up list is on the wall by the coffee service area. Thanks--Tim Schneider, Congregational Life Elder, and Marsha Morton, past Congregational Life Elder.

FROM PRESBYTERY OF DENVER The Presbytery of Denver Presents “Roots and Wings: A Multicultural Celebration of our Origins and Faith” -- Join together on April 16th at First Presbyterian Church of Aurora with members of the Presbytery who possess all kinds of cultural and ethnic backgrounds, speak varieties of languages, worship in different styles, and may hold all kinds of beliefs and positions but are all Presbyterian! How do we do that? How do we stay in relationship and also hold mutual respect among ourselves and in our churches? Come, learn, worship and celebrate together. It will be a joyous time of understanding and affirmation. The guest speaker will be the Rev. Raafat Girgis, pastor of Immanuel Presbyterian Church in Los Angeles. A festive part of the celebration will be potluck lunch to taste diverse foods from different continents. The celebration begins at 10 a.m. and will conclude at 1:30 p.m. To register go to www.denpres/events.

FROM FRED FINKE AND MARSHA MORTON As many of you may know, Fred and Marsha have been working hard on a play--Fred as Director, and Marsha as Assistant Director/Stage Manager. It is called "Sherlock Homes: Assassins at Sea", and will be performed at the Theater Company of Lafayette every Friday and Saturday evening in March at 7:30 pm, as well as two Sunday matinees. It combines mystery and humor and they would love to fill the seats with their GSPC friends. To see the schedule and to order tickets, go to www.tclstage.org. Please note that tickets are only $10 for opening night of Friday, March 4. The Mary Miller Theater in Lafayette is a small theater, so some performances could sell out. Order your tickets early from the link on the website, and they'll be waiting for you at Will Call.

FELLOWSHIP HOUR HOSTS FOR MARCH

Mar. 13 Gwen Thompson & Louise Schwartz Mar. 27 Tim & Dawna Schneider

Once again we are preparing to receive the annual One Great Hour of Sharing offering on Easter Sunday. As you know this is divided equally between:

- Presbyterian Disaster Assistance. In 2015 this agency was "ready to go" when disasters such as the 2 massive earthquakes in Nepal happened. PDA joined with other emergency assistance efforts to provide Ready to Eat food, family water treatment and personal hygiene kits, tarps for emergency shelter and basic survival items like kitchen utensils and blankets.
- Self-Development of People. In 2014 the SDP partnered with the Multicultural Alliance for a Safe Environment to clean up uranium tailings at abandoned mines in the Navaho Nation of New Mexico.
- Presbyterian Hunger Program. This agency has recently been working with a local agency in El Salvador to promote the use of native seeds, organic fertilizers and agro-ecological farming practices to combat the severe drought conditions that are ongoing in Central America.

Thank you for your generous gifts to OGHS as we join other Presbyterians to help our sisters and brothers around the world! Envelopes for this Special Offering can be found in the pews or with your giving envelopes.
